

FDLP Connection, Volume 2, Issue 11/12 Released

The November/December 2012 issue of FDLP Connection has been released. This month's newsletter is a wrap-up of the Depository Library Council Meeting and Federal Depository Library Conference (Meeting & Conference).

In her column, Superintendent of Documents, Mary Alice Baish recounts some of the special activities of the Meeting & Conference, provides a "next steps" response to the FDLP Forecast submissions, and offers thanks in a holiday message. Meanwhile, your Council colleagues, Shari Laster (University of Akron and DLC Chair) and Peggy Jarrett (University of Washington Gallagher Law Library) write of Council's Working Groups Meeting & Conference activities.

This FDLP Connection's features include:

- * Federal agency programs from the Meeting & Conference;
- * FDLP community educational sessions;
- * Preliminary results from the FDLP Forecast Study;
- * Meeting & Conference virtual attendance;
- * Tool for simplifying the N&O process;
- * GODORT of Michigan as a successful library staff collaboration;
- * Library Spotlight;
- * And more!

Sign up to receive our newsletter via e-mail. The theme for the January/February issue is "Preservation" and the focus of the March/April issue is "Online Tools".

Share your expertise, unique services, and other items of interest with fellow colleagues throughout the library community by contributing to future issues of FDLP Connection.

For submissions or questions, use askGPO and choose "Federal Depository Libraries" as the category and "FDLP Connection" as the subcategory.

Cynthia Etkin & Kelly Seifert
Co-Editors, FDLP Connection
U.S. Government Printing Office